

Here are the in-person volunteering opportunities we can offer with Give a Book.

Store Days

Every few months we visit our storage unit in West London to pack up books for a variety of projects.

Books are sent to custody suites, school libraries, prison libraries and breakfast book clubs.

School volunteering

We are looking to attach volunteers to our school projects. The role could range from assisting with a Breakfast Book Club, participating or leading a reading group or reading to groups of children.

Family Day Book Packing

We also visit our storage office in West London to sort and pack books to send specifically to Prison Family Days.

We would love help from volunteers who can help choose age suitable books for children.

Family Day Volunteering

Family Days enable prisoners and their partners and children/grandchildren to spend more time together than is possible in a regular visit. PRG provides an age-appropriate for each visiting child.

The volunteer is on hand to give out the book bags and encourage children and parents to spend time together with the books.

Would you like to get involved?

If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please email info@giveabook.org.uk or get in touch via the contact form, making sure to include the following information:

- Where you are based
- Which opportunity you are interested in, and why

We will get back to you as soon as possible with relevant opportunities. Please be aware that we have not yet resumed in-person volunteering due to lockdown restrictions.

We occasionally have opportunities for long-term Prison Reading Group volunteers. We currently have a lot of volunteers interested in this, but you are welcome to get in touch and we will add you to our volunteer waiting list.
